Distributor's notes

Let’s start at delicious. On the nose there are dark tones of bark, blood orange, raspberry, fresh parsnip, cinnamon and volcanic rock. It hits the palate with blasts of fresh strawberry, limestone, granite, and a fine latticework of tannin and acid. The finish is persistent with acid supported fruit, carbon and ozone.

About the producer

The Dirty (Hardy & Kate) and Rowdy (Matt & Amy) families got together for a simple purpose; make honest wines that we want to drink.

There's a long story about Dirty and Rowdy involving blogs, videos, dream jobs, Atlanta, late nights spent cooking spicy fried chicken in an old cast iron skillet, and a sincere love of real wine and real food.

After years of fried chicken it was only logical that we would start a band...or better yet, a winery. In 2010 we began making wine—these are wines with knees, elbows, and open hearts
