Distributor's notes

A bottle of sun, soil, sweat and sassafras. A stoney nose accented by dark fruits lures you in, strikes, and begins to gently squeeze your palate with mineral driven quartz sitting on top of purple, brambly fruit. Cross stitched tannin builds and ramps up to a long finish that finds itself tickling the spot where your cheeks meet your ears.

About the producer

The Dirty (Hardy & Kate) and Rowdy (Matt & Amy) families got together for a simple purpose; make honest wines that we want to drink.

There's a long story about Dirty and Rowdy involving blogs, videos, dream jobs, Atlanta, late nights spent cooking spicy fried chicken in an old cast iron skillet, and a sincere love of real wine and real food.

After years of fried chicken it was only logical that we would start a band...or better yet, a winery. In 2010 we began making wine—these are wines with knees, elbows, and open hearts
