La Patience Nemausa Rosé

South of France

Organically managed family estate, full of the Southern sun and joy of life. Nemausa, named from the old Latin name for the city of Nîmes, this old vine Grenache and Syrah gives beautiful structure and pronounced notes of red fruit, Provençal herbs and a long finish reminiscent of an afternoon spent reading under the trees. Best paired with fish dishes, traditional bouillabaisse, grills & picnics.

La Patience Rouge

South of France

A renowned French estate making joyful wines under the warm Southern sun stands behind this Jenny & François exclusive label. A merlot-carignan blend with pleasant red berries both on the nose and palate; thanks to its vivacity and silky tannins, it bears the licence to chill (with all kinds of aperitives).
