importer of natural wines

Clos Siguier

Cahors, France

A deep yet fresh and delicate red from the South-West of France, the original home of the Malbec grape. 60 year old vineyards organically managed by a craftsman devoted to terroir, which shows in the wine. Packed with dark berries, Assam tea, and earthy undertones; a real bargain whose silky tannins and crisp minerality will make all your steaks and stews sing.

Clos Siguier Vieilles Vignes Camille

Layered, fine red from the original home of the Malbec grape. This wine is a real bargain—you rarely pay so little for the fruit of 80 year old organic vineyards on prime terroir. Dark berries, chocolate, Ceylon tea, truffles, crushed rock, meditation. Works great with the regional specialties like cassoulet or artisan sausages, venison, and strong aged cheeses.
