Ca' dei Zago Prosecco Col Fondo

Valdobbiadene, Italy

Wine Enthusiast 94 /100

"Col Fondo" means "with bottom" or "on the lees"- the traditional bottle-fermented style of Prosecco with sediment. This one is from old, biodynamically grown Glera wines and shows beautiful purity, citrusy mineral aromas and fine bubbles. Its mere 11% ABV makes it an incredibly drinkable wine for any time. Serve cloudy if shaken or clear if you let it rest upright, like in the rolling hills of Veneto.

Ca' dei Zago Metodo Classico Dosaggio Zero

Valdobbiadene, Italy

Wine Enthusiast 95 /100

Single-vineyard sophisticated sparkler, made with grapes painstakingly taken care of by the hand of third-generation winemaker Christian Zago, who follows biodynamic principles and even makes his own compost. The result is a wine of superb precision and purity, with wet stone undertones and bright citrus acidity for days.
