

jenny & françois selections

importer of natural wines

Milan Nestarec Běl

Moravia, Czech Republic

“Běl” is an ancient word for “white” in Czech: the wine is a tribute to the old school easy-drinking blends that the winemaker remembers from his childhood. One of the most talented Central European winemakers of his generation whose wines are bursting with energy and respect to terroir even in everyday incarnations like this one. Pairs well with anything.

Scan to learn more

www.jennyandfrancois.com
@jennyfrancois

jenny & françois selections

importer of natural wines

Milan Nestarec Nach

Moravia, Czech Republic

“Nach” is old Czech for “purple” and that’s exactly what you get with this fruit-driven, smashable Blaufränkisch/Zweigelt/Pinot Noir blend. Nestarec is one of the most talented Central European winemakers of his generation, whose wines are bursting with energy and respect to terroir even in the everyday incarnations like this one. Zero sulfur.

Scan to learn more

www.jennyandfrancois.com
@jennyfrancois

jenny & françois selections

importer of natural wines

Milan Nestarec Forks & Knives White

Moravia, Czech Republic

The skin-contact wine for people who don’t like skin-contact (yet)! Light maceration brings an extra layer of depth to this herbal, apricot citrusy juice with electrifying acidity, a signature move for this young winemaker, one of the most talented Central European growers of his generation. Blend of Neuburger, Traminer, Sauvignon, Palava, Riesling that pairs great with Asian dishes.

Scan to learn more

www.jennyandfrancois.com
@jennyfrancois

jenny & françois selections

importer of natural wines

Milan Nestarec Forks & Knives Rosé

Moravia, Czech Republic

“Is it rosé? Or rather red? Who cares when all you can think of is f*k this is good, and ask for more,” says the creator of this wine himself – one of the most talented Central European winemakers of his generation – and we couldn’t agree more. Cab Franc, Zweigelt and Regent grapes translated into cranberry-pomegranate-sour cherries electric juice that you won’t be able to put down.

Scan to learn more

www.jennyandfrancois.com
@jennyfrancois

jenny & françois selections

importer of natural wines

Milan Nestarec Forks & Knives Red

Moravia, Czech Republic

Wine made for the table, as the name suggests. Spicy, herbal tones rub elbows with dark cherries and roasted figs in this lively Pinot Noir, Blaufränkisch, Cab Sauv & Franc blend made by one of the most talented Central European winemakers of his generation. If this is the “everyday nutrition” in Nestarec’s native Czechia, we seriously consider moving there.

Scan to learn more

www.jennyandfrancois.com
@jennyfrancois

jenny & françois selections

importer of natural wines

Milan Nestarec Běl

Moravia, Czech Republic

“Běl” is an ancient word for “white” in Czech: the wine is a tribute to the old school easy-drinking blends that the winemaker remembers from his childhood. One of the most talented Central European winemakers of his generation whose wines are bursting with energy and respect to terroir even in everyday incarnations like this one. Pairs well with anything.

Scan to learn more

www.jennyandfrancois.com
@jennyfrancois

jenny & françois selections

importer of natural wines

Milan Nestarec Nach

Moravia, Czech Republic

“Nach” is old Czech for “purple” and that’s exactly what you get with this fruit-driven, smashable Blaufränkisch/Zweigelt/Pinot Noir blend. Nestarec is one of the most talented Central European winemakers of his generation, whose wines are bursting with energy and respect to terroir even in the everyday incarnations like this one. Zero sulfur.

Scan to learn more

www.jennyandfrancois.com
@jennyfrancois

jenny & françois selections

importer of natural wines

Milan Nestarec Forks & Knives White

Moravia, Czech Republic

The skin-contact wine for people who don’t like skin-contact (yet)! Light maceration brings an extra layer of depth to this herbal, apricot citrusy juice with electrifying acidity, a signature move for this young winemaker, one of the most talented Central European growers of his generation. Blend of Neuburger, Traminer, Sauvignon, Palava, Riesling that pairs great with Asian dishes.

Scan to learn more

www.jennyandfrancois.com
@jennyfrancois